教师介绍

Lily Han was an outstanding dancer of a Chinese dance troupe before joining DCS (Lakewood). She focused on the art of Chinese dances as a performer, instructor, and choreographer. Lily has the Chinese national dance teacher certification and has more than 20 years of teaching experience in various Chinese traditional dances and modern dances. She has accumulated an abundance of stage experience as a both a choreographer and a performer for large scale stage productions and performances. Her unique teaching style along with a genuine passion for dancing encourages every student to enjoy her classes and learn the art of dance. Her students, which include both children and adults, have performed for schools, organizations, and cultural events in the Denver area and have received many accolades for their performances.
